

NO. 18 PUBLIC SAFETY
STORAGE OF INFLAMMABLE SUBSTANCES AND FLUIDS

1. No person shall at any time have in any place or building more than five barrels of coal oil, petroleum, kerosene oil or other inflammable oil, or more than one barrel of any crude oil, naphtha, benzoline, gasoline, benzine or other combustible fluid, unless such place or building is more than one hundred feet from any other building, provided however, that the Council may by resolution, reduce such distance in respect to any other building owned by such person and which is more than one hundred feet from any building not owned by such persons.
2. Crude oil, naphtha, benzoline, gasoline, benzine and any other combustible fluid shall be kept in metal vessels.
3. No person at any time shall have in any place or building more than ten empty coal barrels or other barrels which have contained illuminating oil.
4. No explosive or inflammable substance or combustible fluid shall be kept under a stairway or in any other place so as to obstruct or render egress dangerous in case of fire.
5. No person who contravenes or fails to comply with any of the foregoing provisions in respect to storage of inflammable substances and fluids, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty dollars, and in default of payment, to imprisonment not exceeding sixty days.

FIREARMS AND FIREWORKS

6. No person shall wantonly and unnecessarily discharge any firearm without having first obtained a license therefor. License shall be issued of the recommendation of the committee on police and licenses, and may be granted to any person or number of persons collectively, or to any company or club, and shall be for such time and upon such terms and conditions as the committee directs. The committee may at any time cancel such license.
7. No person shall store or keep for sale any fireworks without having first obtained permission by resolution of the Council setting forth the terms and conditions thereof, and which permission the Council may at any time revoke.
8. No person shall set off any firecracker, rocket, squib, or other fireworks, or set any fire in any street, without having first obtained the written permission therefor of the Mayor, which permission shall state the time for which it shall be in force and the terms and conditions on which it is granted.
9. Every person who contravenes or fails to comply with any of the foregoing provisions in respect to firearms and fireworks shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten dollars and in default of payment, to imprisonment not exceeding twenty days.
